

Venue and Accommodation

Phuket, Thailand's largest island in the south, is the dream destination for many holiday makers from around the world. Dubbed 'The Pearl of the Andaman Sea', its spectacular scenery, stunning tropical sunsets, and warm blue sea await you at this Asia's most popular beach destination. This fun island provides an unbeatable combination of perfect silky soft white beaches, natural attractions such as lush forests and waterfalls, as well as cultural heritage such as Buddhist temples and Sino-Portuguese architecture.

It is easily accessible by one-hour domestic flights from Bangkok's Don Mueng and Suvarnabhumi International Airports and international flights from airports in Malaysia, Singapore, and Hong Kong, for example.

The Planning Institute for High Impact CWIE will be held at the Holiday Inn Resort Phuket Mai Khao Beach. Located on the pristine Mai Khao Beach with direct beach access, the resort is the perfect destination to discover the true beauty of Phuket with award winning service. Only a 15-minute drive from Phuket International Airport, the resort is one of the most convenient venues for events and conferences with the comfort of contemporary living, the latest technology facilities, and the perfect selection of restaurants and bar featuring both local specialties and international cuisine. A variety of activities for all ages are available throughout the resort.
